WORLDWIDE DISASTER RELIEF

Advisory Board

David Broza is an internationally renowned Israeli singer-songwriter, recognized for his dynamic guitar performances and humanitarian efforts. Social justice and peace advocacy are embedded in Broza's work; his 1977 hit song "Yihye Tov" remains an Israeli peace anthem.

Broza was born in Haifa, Israel and spent his teenage years in Spain and the UK. After returning to Israel, Broza started his musical career at age 22. His travels have contributed to his international sound and commitment to human connection, story-telling, and equality.

At the core of his social justice work is the belief that music is a platform for dialogue and tolerance. He is the founder of the non-profit One Million Guitars, which gives underprivileged schoolchildren around the world hand-crafted guitars and the foundation of a musical education. David joined NATAN's Advisory Board in 2021.
