

NATAN

WORLDWIDE DISASTER RELIEF

Nili Bresler is a member of NATAN's Board and an active volunteer. Nili headed NATAN's Communications Team from 2016 until April 2024. She is a professional presenter, trainer and executive coach with over 20 years' experience in management at multinational technology companies. Prior to her career in high-tech, Nili was a journalist, having worked as a foreign correspondent, writer, radio broadcaster and editor for major news organizations, including the Associated Press. Nili holds a bachelor's degree in International Relations and Economics from New York University. She is a professional Project Manager with a certificate from PMI (Project Management Institute) and also holds a certificate in Training and Staff Development from New York University's Management Institute. Nili is an active member of the Democracy movement in Israel. She has volunteered with NATAN for over 10 years, and took on the Communications role in 2016.

LinkedIn profile: il.linkedin.com/in/nilibresler/

Read Nili's blog: <https://blogs.timesofisrael.com/author/nili-bresler/>